A Personal Invitation

Hi, I'm Loretta Brandon. The Presque Isle Lighthouse was my family home from 1955 to 1964. I am thrilled to watch it being restored back to an important part of Erie's maritime history. This project needs support from many sources, so I invite you to become a member of the Presque Isle Light Station. To thank you for joining at the $125 level, or any level above that, you will receive a copy of my book, Lightkeeper's Legacy: A Personal History of Presque Isle. Thank you and see you at the Lighthouse!

PRESQUE ISLE LIGHT STATION

Since 2014, the Presque Isle Light Station Not-for-Profit Corporation has been working in cooperation with Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR) to begin the restoration process of the Presque Isle Lighthouse.

The first goal was to open the lighthouse to the public during the summer seasons and begin to enhance the area surrounding the lighthouse. That happened in the summers of 2014, 2015, and 2016.

The second goal is to write the Five-Year Plan to restore the site to the early 1900's that will capture the life and the history at the Presque Isle Lighthouse.

The restoration and reconstruction process is estimated to cost between $1.5 to $2 million dollars.

We invite you to participate in this historic effort by becoming a member of the Presque Isle Light Station. Join today!

A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO ALL LIGHTHOUSE ENTHUSIASTS

We are looking for volunteers to help during the 2017 summer season. Please check out the information and application online at www.presqueislelighthouse.org.

A RECAP OF THE 2016 SUMMER SEASON

The Presque Isle Light Station welcomed over 30,000 visitors this season with over 13,000 climbing to the top of the tower.

A dedicated group of volunteers worked five days a week, Memorial Day through September, to educate visitors about the history of the lighthouse.

The visitors came from 48 of the 50 states in the US and 16 foreign countries. Funds from the ticket sales go towards the operation of the lighthouse.

The Presque Isle Lighthouse is a popular destination for the visitors who come to beautiful Presque Isle State Park everyday of the year.
